Risk Management: What Could Impact Your Company's Reputation?

Could a supply chain hiccup impact your company's reputation? The answer is yes! No matter what type of business you are in, risks are there that could impact the reputation and profitability of your company. This session will highlight actual examples when supply chain issues have had an impact on companies' reputations and business success. You see how risk modeling & analysis and tools are used to identify, assess and manage risk of equipment, products, and services in a Fortune 500 company's supply chain.

About Our Speaker

Cathy Herr, senior director, global manufacturing procurement for Eli Lilly and Company, leads a team of 70 employees who support Lilly Manufacturing sites around the world by ensuring the right product is available, at the right time in, the right quality, and at the best value. Cathy's team is responsible for category management and supplier relationship management for $4.6 billion in annual spends. Since joining Lilly in 1982, she has held numerous positions within the company, including information technology, human resources and distribution. During her 16 years in Procurement, Cathy has led a wide variety of projects.

Come join us for an exciting and informative evening at Raffels Banquet Center, 10160 Reading Rd., Evendale Ohio 45241. Networking and registration starts at 5:30pm, with dinner at 6:00pm and the speaker to follow.

Satellite Seminars

Feb 10, 2010
Understanding and Embedding Risk Management Concepts into Supply Practices

The probability of loss or failure is always a possibility. In today's global economy, political unrest, materials shortages, environmental concerns, natural disasters and other disruptions are considerable supply chain risks that need to be addressed to ensure supply success. How can you identify and mitigate risks in your supply chain? This satellite seminar offers practical strategies and tools to recognize, manage and eliminate possible risks.

“A Great Value”

Certification and Professional Development

Are you currently a CPM interested in taking the Bridge Exam? If so say something to one of the board members. If there is enough interest we may consider holding a bridge review seminar in the spring. This would be similar to the CPSM review seminar currently in progress. Add “CPSM” to your credentials.

Welcome to our new Members!
