

CPSM Review Seminar, Spring 2010

DARE TO LEAD SUPPLY MANAGEMENT

Become a CPSM[®]. It gives you the multifaceted foundation to continuously improve and innovate in this highly competitive global marketplace. As a CPSM[®], your skills in areas such as supplier relationship management, commodity management, risk and compliance issues and social responsibility will drive value in every link of the supply chain.

The criteria for earning the CPSM[®] designation:

- Three years of full-time professional supply management experience – non-clerical, non-support
- Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution or international equivalent
- Pass all three CPSM[®] Exams, OR, if you are a C.P.M. in good standing, pass the Bridge Exam (a single exam covering content not included in the current C.P.M.)

Dates: Four consecutive weeks beginning Saturday, March 20th and concluding April 10th, 2010

The seminar will be held from 9:00 am until 1:00 pm in Conference Room 615 of the Lucas Administrative Center on the Northern Kentucky University campus. The campus is conveniently located just south of the junction of I-471 and I-275 in Highland Heights Kentucky eight miles south of downtown Cincinnati and only eighty-five miles from Lexington.

Registration Fee: $695 for NAPM-Cincinnati members and $859 for non-members which includes:

- Participant Manual and Workbook
- CPSM Study Guide (three volumes)
- Professional Series Book, Volume 1 Fundamentals of Supply Management
- Professional Series Book, Volume 2 Effective Supply Management Performance
- Professional Series Book, Volume 3 Leadership in Supply Management
- CPSM Diagnostic Kit
- ISM Glossary

In addition, participants will have exclusive access to the NAPM-Cincinnati library of professional development materials including the CPSM recommended supplemented reading materials

The CPSM Review Seminar will provide you with an understanding of the CPSM program, and the breadth of content covered in each of the three CPSM exams with the benefit of being able to apply many best practices immediately in the participant's own organization.

For current C.P.M.s the material required for the Bridge Exam will be covered and highlighted during the seminar allowing them to assess the knowledge they have acquired through education and experience against the content areas of the Bridge Exam.

CPSM Review Seminar presented by NAPM-Cincinnati

The seminar will be facilitated by Don Johnson, CPSM, C.P.M., CPIM. Don is an ISM certified CPSM trainer and has experience in both private sector and public sector procurement.

The seminar is held on the Northern Kentucky University campus conveniently located just south of downtown Cincinnati at the intersection of I-275 and I471.

ISM launched the Certified Professional in Supply Management® (CPSM®) program in May 2008. The CPSM® is the credential that surpasses the demands of the international marketplace with multi-faceted skills in areas such as supplier relationship management, commodity management, risk and compliance issues and social responsibility. The CPSM® qualification will enable professionals to gain a clear understanding of their organization's supply operation and enable managers to take an active role in critical decisions. Each step in the development of an organization's products and/or services is controlled by supply management. Current evolution of the profession dictates that a strategic level qualification is needed for professionals to effectively implement innovative supply strategies throughout their entire organization. The CPSM® will be a milestone for those professionals who take ownership of their careers. Pursuing your CPSM® qualification is your chance to leverage your knowledge and experience into career advancement.
